

Stop trying to regulate everything since you ruin it for everyone and you wont get voted for again. XM rocks and beats the crap out of radio so that must be the reason for them being scared since people will see the light on join. We should have options and choices for what we want to hear since we would pay for it and this is America not Iran.